

Duration: 1 - 2 Days

Introduction: This course provides students who have no previous subject knowledge or experience, with a basic knowledge of the threat from Improvised Explosive or Incendiary Devices (IED/IID's) and recognition of their component parts. The action to be taken on discovery of a suspect package, postal device or upon receipt of a bomb threat. The course can include basic search procedures and be tailored to meet client specific requirements and personnel, Security, Reception, Post Room, Fire Wardens etc. Candidates will be expected to sit a 2 part exam upon completion of the training.

Intended for:

- 👁 Security Staff
- 👁 Receptionists
- 👁 Mailroom Staff
- 👁 Secretaries
- 👁 Maintenance Staff
- 👁 General Staff

Course Content:

The Threat

Terrorist devices, recognition and Method of Attack

Effects of Blast

Action on receipt of a bomb warning or discovery of a suspect package

Postal Devices

Telephone Bomb Threats

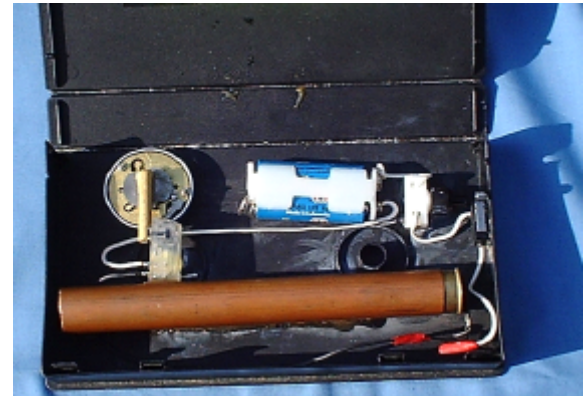

Basic Search Procedures - Client specific (Person, Vehicle, Building, Site & Perimeter, Route etc)

Introduction to Basic Search Equipment

CBRN Response

Outcomes: Students will be able to:

- 👁 Identify IED's, their component parts and Method of Attack.
- 👁 Respond correctly and safely to the discovery of a suspect package/device.
- 👁 Act correctly on receipt of a bomb warning.
- 👁 Carry out the correct procedures in the event of an evacuation.
- 👁 Identify suitable evacuation areas
- 👁 Identify suitable types of search equipment for particular tasks.
- 👁 Conduct practical searches safely (If applicable)

Qualifications: Successful completion of the course will result in the academic awards of an Edexcel/SQA qualification and Strings/T2P International Technical Certificate.

Student numbers: Client and content dependant.

Course Costs: Student number, location & content dependant. Certification costs: £30 per student

Specialists in Threat, Security, Safety, Emergency Management and Training

Adding 1 or 2 extra days to the course length provides for additional training modules and a full scale exercise which requires the students to plan a search which pulls together all aspects of the previous 2 days plus additional subjects.

Course Content

Introduction to Search Planning
Command & Control
Evacuation Planning and techniques
Communications
Cordon Management
Liaison with Emergency Services
Search Exercise co-ordinating all the previous lessons
Practical Exercise

Crystalline tri-acetone tri-peroxide (TATP)

Student numbers: Client and content dependant.

Course Costs: Student number, location & content dependant.

Specialists in Threat, Security, Safety , Emergency Management and Training